ACCREDITATION AD HOC WORKING GROUP (REPORTS TO: MEMBERSHIP & ACCREDITATION)	Rising from the sovereign power of our American Indian tribal nations, AIHEC’s original mission statement, drafted in the early 1970s, affirmed a commitment to TRIBAL higher education that was created and owned by our own people. Consistent with our original mission, the Board established this Working Group in 2010 to explore the possibility of developing a tribally-controlled accrediting body for TCUs. By Board decision and directive, this working group is to be led and staffed by TCU presidents, to ensure ownership and buy-in. The goal is to develop a Tribally-owned process for accrediting Tribal higher education that is based on Native ways of knowing and Tribal values, principles, identity, and spirituality. The mission of the “AIHEC Council on Accreditation” is to enhance the quality and credibility of tribal higher education through the accreditation of member institutions, based on a set of guiding principles.	Cynthia Lindquist, CCCC Richard Littlebear, CDKC David Yarlott, Jr. LBHC Lionel Bordeaux, SGU Laurel Vermillion, SBC James Davis, TMCC Leander R.
