

2018 AIHEC STUDENT CONGRESS

LEADERS IN FUTURE ENDEAVORS (LIFE) CONFERENCE

APPLICATION

AIHEC Student Congress (ASC) officially invites all Tribal College and University (TCU) students to participate in the 2018 AIHEC Student Congress (ASC) Leaders in Future Endeavors (LIFE) Conference, June 19-21, 2018 at Northwest Indian College in Bellingham, WA. This application packet specifies all the necessary materials needed to become a candidate for inclusion in the 2018 ASC LIFE Conference.

Make sure you have enclosed the following materials:

- Letter of Reference from TCU faculty member or TCU President
- Completed Application
- 250-Word Personal Statement
- Signed TCU Commitment to Participate
- Sign the Picture and Media Release Statement

The ASC developed the LIFE Conference to build on positive leadership skills, including attentiveness, ambition, teamwork, cooperation, communication, creativity, cultural knowledge, respect, and a strong sense of social responsibility. TCU student leaders are increasingly called upon to represent their tribal college, advocate for the tribal college movement, and work to serve their college community. The ASC wants every participant of the LIFE Conference to develop a better understanding of their individual role and the role of their community in the wider TCU movement and the skill sets and know-how to address the challenges and opportunities of the student bodies they serve.

All onsite lodging and meals during the LIFE Conference will be provided through funding from AIHEC and the Coca-Cola Foundation/American Indian College Fund. TCUs are responsible for student travel and meals, if any, to and from the conference venue. However, each TCU that sends at least one participant to the LIFE Conference will receive a single $500 stipend for reimbursement of travel costs.

Completed student participation packets must be returned to the Selection Committee prior to 5 PM MDT on May 1, 2018. Get your application in EARLY to improve your chances to participate!
