

TRIBAL Colleges: Educating, Engaging, Innovating, Sustaining, Honoring

Tribal Colleges and Universities: Building Partnerships, Creating Jobs, Advancing Communities

The American Indian Higher Education Consortium (AIHEC) invites you to attend a briefing on the nation's 36 Tribal Colleges and Universities (TCUs). Join us to learn more about the innovative and collaborative partnerships TCUs are building with the public and private sectors to create jobs and strengthen local communities – and how policy can support this work!

Engage with panelists from across the nation:

- David Yarlott, Jr., President, Little Big Horn College, Crow Agency, MT and AIHEC Board Chair
- Sandra Boham, President, Salish Kootenai College, Pablo, MT
- Roland Begaye, Student, Navajo Technical University, Crownpoint, NM & Chinle, AZ
- Breanne Luger, Student, Sitting Bull College, Fort Yates, ND and President of the AIHEC Student Congress
- Carrie Billy, President & CEO, AIHEC

Wednesday, February 14, 2018

3:00 pm – 4:00 p.m.

2247 Rayburn House Office Building

RSVP HERE or email: adadi@bpagdc.com

